

I REMEMBER MAMA by John van Druten

There is something here in the paper about a lady writer
... "Woman writer tells key to literary success."

Peter
Thorakelson?
Little Peter?

She'd
be the laughing stock.

Does every
husband
have to be big man?

Now tell me
about the Fjod-
boller.

I remember Mama

When you make the meat balls,
you drop them in boiling stock.
Not water. That is one of the secrets.

When Mr. Thorkelson
goes to see him...

Little Peter
and Uncle Chris!

Uncle Chris will
eat him!

Ab, Her dowry.
Trina wants a dowry. She is forty-
two years old
and it is not enough she
gets husband.
She must have
dowry.

I - Trina's room.

I told you
right in the beginning, that
you shouldn't trust him. But you were so sure - just like you always are. Mr. Hyde was a gentleman. A gentleman! I bet it must have been a hundred dollars that he rooked you of. Wasn't it?

Jenny, I cannot talk
now. Maybe you don't have things to do, I have.
